This is Lawrence Central—1960 This year, for the first time, a new arts and science wing was combined with the main building which has served in good stead for nineteen years. Hence, the new and the old formally became one. The new building stands proudly on land that a softball diamond once occupied, and a new covered walkway now extends across the one-time driveway. Except for an extensive face lifting the main building remains unchanged, however, and as Centralites watch their school grow, it alone remains the one familiar landmark of the past.

Foreword

Now that the 1960 school year is drawing to a close, students are sad to conclude nine wonderful months of happiness and sorrow; excitement and boredom; work and play--the elements that make up a school year.

"New" has been the spirit of '59-'60. A new peak in enrollment was attained this year, 1700 students. The growing administration also brought many changes in the school routine. This rapid growth even made new report cards a necessity!

With the addition of the new Arts and Science wing, the students were offered an even broader range of learning. The growing facilities and new surroundings may have inspired the efforts which brought many honors and awards to Lawrence pupils, through both brains and brawn.

The National Honor Society increased its membership in '60, and the Honor Roll sported many new names along with those not-so-new.

In the brawn department, the mighty Bears' football team captured both the Marion County Class "B" Championship and the Capital District Conference for the second consecutive year. The cross country and track teams also gained admirable records, and the undermanned wrestling team won an ample share of honors for the individual members and for Lawrence. In the Spring, baseball and golf served as fine outlets for energetic Bears, including loyal fans.

Clubs and organizations were busy throughout the year, offering students utilization of their talents in innumerable ways. New clubs came into existence including the Amateur Radio Club, the Boys' Booster Club, the Future Nurses Club, and the Bible Club.

Memories are all that remain of the school year now, but these have been captured for you in the pages of The Lawrence Central BEARS'DEN, a book presenting a historical account of the year. It is an attempt to present some of the highlights of the year, important events and activities; memories...

The yearbook staff has chosen the theme of "Continual Growth" for this book. The t-a-l-l capital letters on the cover and on the division pages throughout the annual are symbolic of the school's continuous ascention, and is intended to carry out this theme.

The journalism class sincerely hopes that you enjoy your BEARS' DEN, and that through the years, you may relive through it that wonderful school year, 1959-60.*

Mr. Edwin Estel, Superintendent of Lawrence Township schools, makes a very important looking phone call from his office in the high school, the "nerve center" of the Lawrence Township school system.

SUPERVISION

This year a new governing body, the Lawrence School Board, replaced the trusteeship board of previous years and took over the supervision of the township schools. By accepting the responsibility of keeping the community's educational system functioning properly, the board also gained the respect of the people and thanks for their efforts. LC ran efficiently due to their work.

Mrs. Jean Fulmer and Mrs. Bernice Hinds confer on a school matter as they go about their duties as secretaries in Mr. Estell's office.

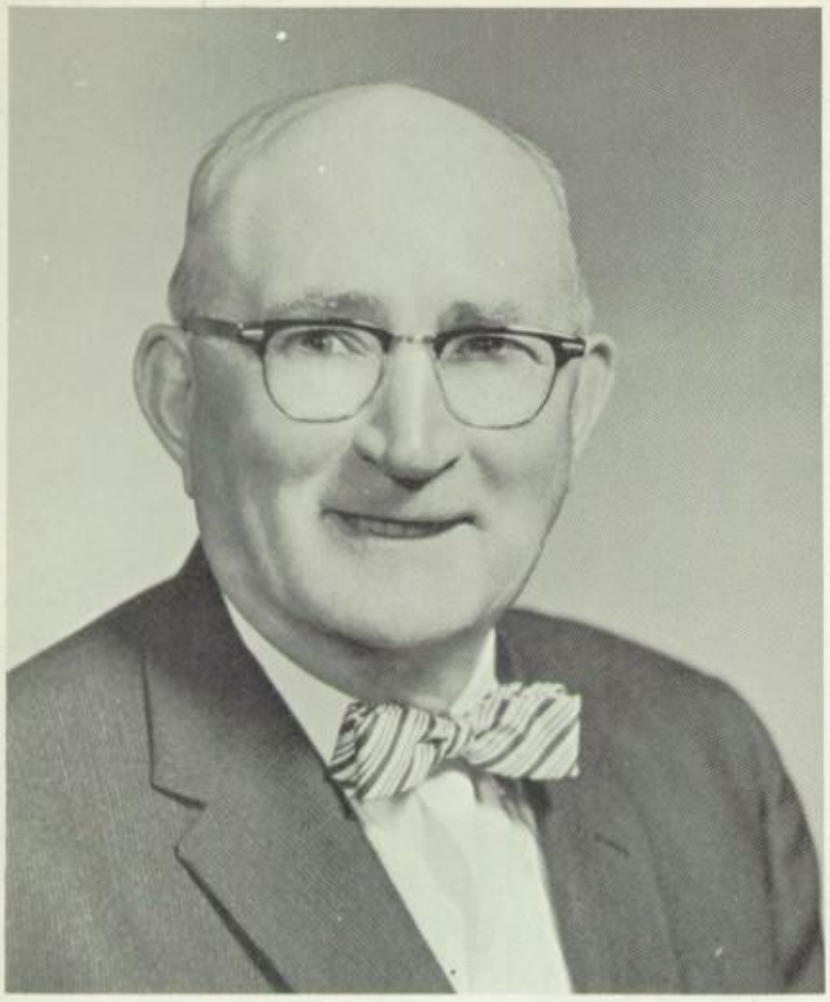
OFFICE HELP

Busily checking the day's attendance are two LC student office helpers, Jackie Surface and Kathy Rice.

Lawrence Central would have trouble functioning properly without the assistance of five dedicated women who serve as the office administration. One could find them anytime of the day busily buried beneath a sea of passes, complaints, excuses, and uncountable miscellaneous paper work. Every day they proved to be indispensable as they served as the students' and faculty's friends as well as assistants. Although they seldom receive a "thank you" or even a compliment, their assistance is greatly appreciated.



This year marks the termination of the career of Mr. Walter Davis that began in 1911 in a one room school house.

Mr. Davis, beloved industrial arts teacher at LCHS, has served both the school and the community well.

To Mr. Davis, who has taught so much to so many, and is now retiring, LC expresses its gratitude and say, "Thanks"

"Teachers are not just people earning a living; they are architects of our future in a land of freedom and opportunity."

-Ivey F. Lewis

Many though the scholastic and athletic honors that LC students attain may be, it should be realized that without the faculty of Lawrence Central to instruct Centralites, these numerous achievements would be gained.

Lawrence Central is indeed fortunate in the respect that its faculty is composed of teachers who are dedicated to teaching. These instructors, sixty in number, are not at LC for the sole purpose of teaching however, for they are also the students' advisors, their club sponsors, and their friends.

The knowledge they impart to LC students cannot be measured by a yardstick or scales for their wisdom will linger in the minds and hearts of Centralites as long as memories of friends and school remain; perhaps, forever.

SENIORS

"Still ending and beginning still"
-Cowper

The Senior Class of 1960 can look back on five years filled with many changes and additions here at Lawrence.

Entering as eighth graders in the newly finished Junior High Building, the class has felt the effects of 'growing pains' as it grew by leaps and bounds.

At last graduation day is drawing near, and the proud seniors must discard their beloved senior cords for the more conventional dress of adults as they accept their various roles in society.

For some, college and the promise of more years of carefree happy abandon lie ahead. Others will leave the hallowed halls of Lawrence to exchange their caps and gowns for positions in business, industry, and administration.

The seniors are saddened to leave this place where they have known so much happiness, but, alas, the time has come to make way for tomorrow. The whole world is at their feet-waiting.

Most Studious The two most studious seniors of 1960, Sarah Glore and Jerry Bean, seem to be just a bit unhappy with the outstanding grades on their recently distributed "report cards."

Most Likely to Succeed Pam Jones and Dave Roberts, voted most likely to succeed of the present senior class, work diligently in an office like the one they may hope to someday occupy.

Most Popular "Batter up" could well be the slogan of LC's most popular members of the Class of '60. Connie Russell and Dave Kirkman seem to be so swamped by admiring classmates that they must use force to ward them off.

Most Athletic Displaying their superior knowledge of the understanding of sports rules are Sue Curry and Jim Hoskins, Lawrence Central's most athletic seniors.

Representing the Junior Class of Lawrence Central on the Student Council this year were: Rick Rudy, Sue Rossell, Ron Duch, Martha Morse, Jim McConnell, and Sharon Manwaring.

JUNIORS

"Youth is all the glad season of life; but often only by what it hopes, not by what it attains or what it escaped."

-Carlyle

With the privilege of becoming upperclassmen, the junior class was both pleased and alarmed with the many new responsibilities and opportunities granted this year.

Each year at LC gives one a louder voice concerning school policy than the year preceding, but the juniors also found this a year in which the school work became stiffer, assignments longer, and satisfactory grades more difficult to attain. But this ambitious group welcomed new challenges. For the first time since coming to Lawrence Central, the class had officers to represent it. Moreover, underclassmen looked up to the juniors because they had joined the ranks of the leaders.

Juniors were leaders in clubs and members of all sports teams. They brought honors to the school and their class by serving in practically every phase of school life, and they have reason to well remember this busy but happy year.

Remember?

This, and page sixty-three are to serve as reminders of some of the less spectacular, but nevertheless interesting, happenings of the past school year.

Do you remember any of them?

John Barbour being in a "cranky" mood before the Homecoming float parade?

Bill Poteat doing some impromptu cheerleading for the benefit of the Boys' Booster Club?

All the hectic preparations in an attempt to have the winning float?

Those afternoon pep sessions that were designed to build up enthusiasm for an impending sports conquest?

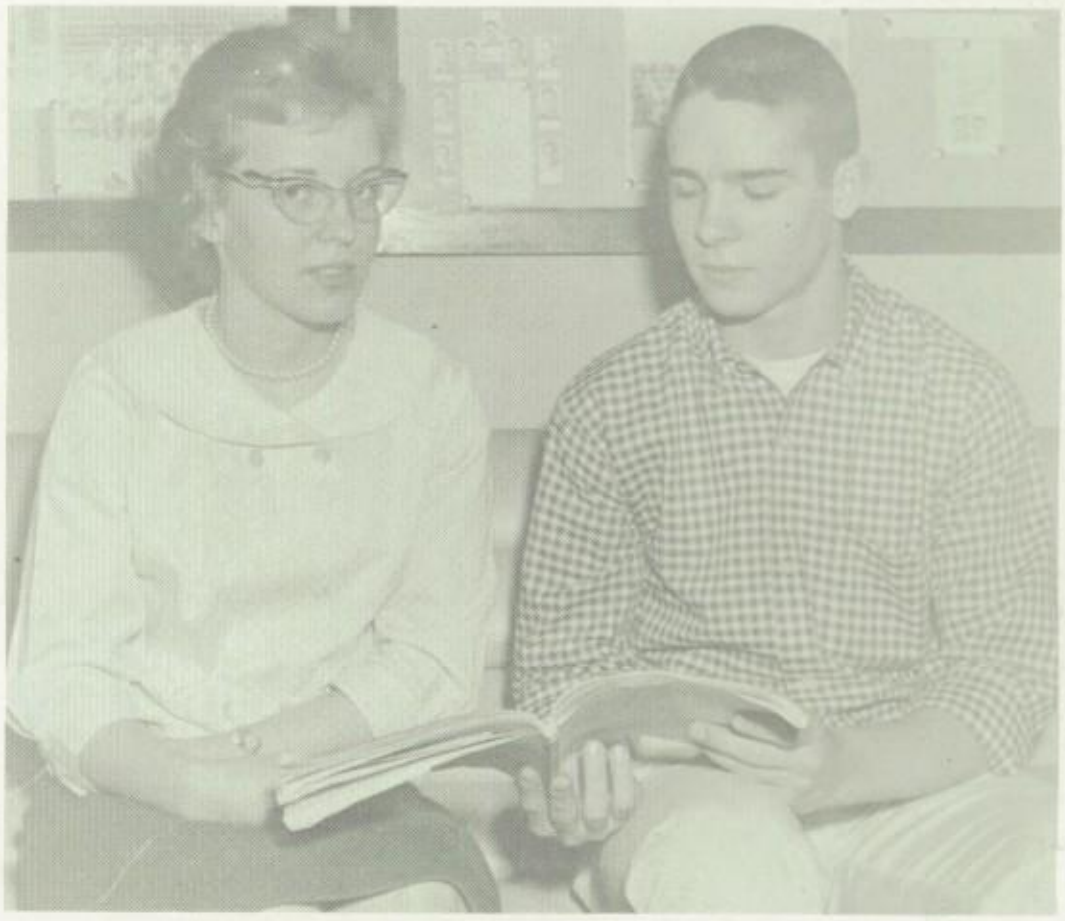
SOPHOMORES

"Youth sees too far to see how near it is to seeing further."
-Robinson

This has certainly been a fun-packed year for every sophomore at Lawrence, and each class member had gained many additions for his scrapbook of remembrances.

Becoming sophomores brought even more activities to use up excess energies as well as new responsibilities. But the sophomores tackled their jobs with a "stick-to-it" attitude. They enjoyed the knowledge that they were a step up the ladder of high school life and looked forward to the second half of their school career with the feeling that there are even better things to come.

By lending their talents to the chorus line, band, sports teams, and various clubs and activities, the sophomore class has indeed enjoyed a year of experiences.



The Student Council Representatives for the Sophomore class this year are Pamela Gamble and Mike Newkirk.

The freshman class had as big a voice in school affairs as any other class, and they made their wants known to the administration partly through their homeroom representatives. Representing the freshmen this year were: ROW ONE: S. Craig, V. Kehrer, C. Smith, V. Jessup, B. Apple, E. Testalin, M. Pruitt. ROW TWO: L. Walker, T. Curry, B. Sims, J. Hinshaw, J. Myers, J. McDaniels, and G. Carter.

Vicki Kerr, Bonnie Apple, and Sally Craig help a tractor pull the freshmen's float into place during the 1959 homecoming parade.

"Youth on the prow and pleasure at the helm."

--Gray

Like all the classes before it, the class of 1963 brought to LCHS in its first year, a burst of youth and vitality.

Eager to become a part of the busy high school life, the freshmen soon took an active interest in the many activities offered them. They stood out athletically and scholastically, bringing many honors to the school.

Having successfully completed its first year, the class can look forward hopefully, but it will never again face high school life with the same awe, anticipation, and bewilderment.

Remember ?

The bubble blowing contest held between Earl Cazares and Martha Coleman during homeroom?

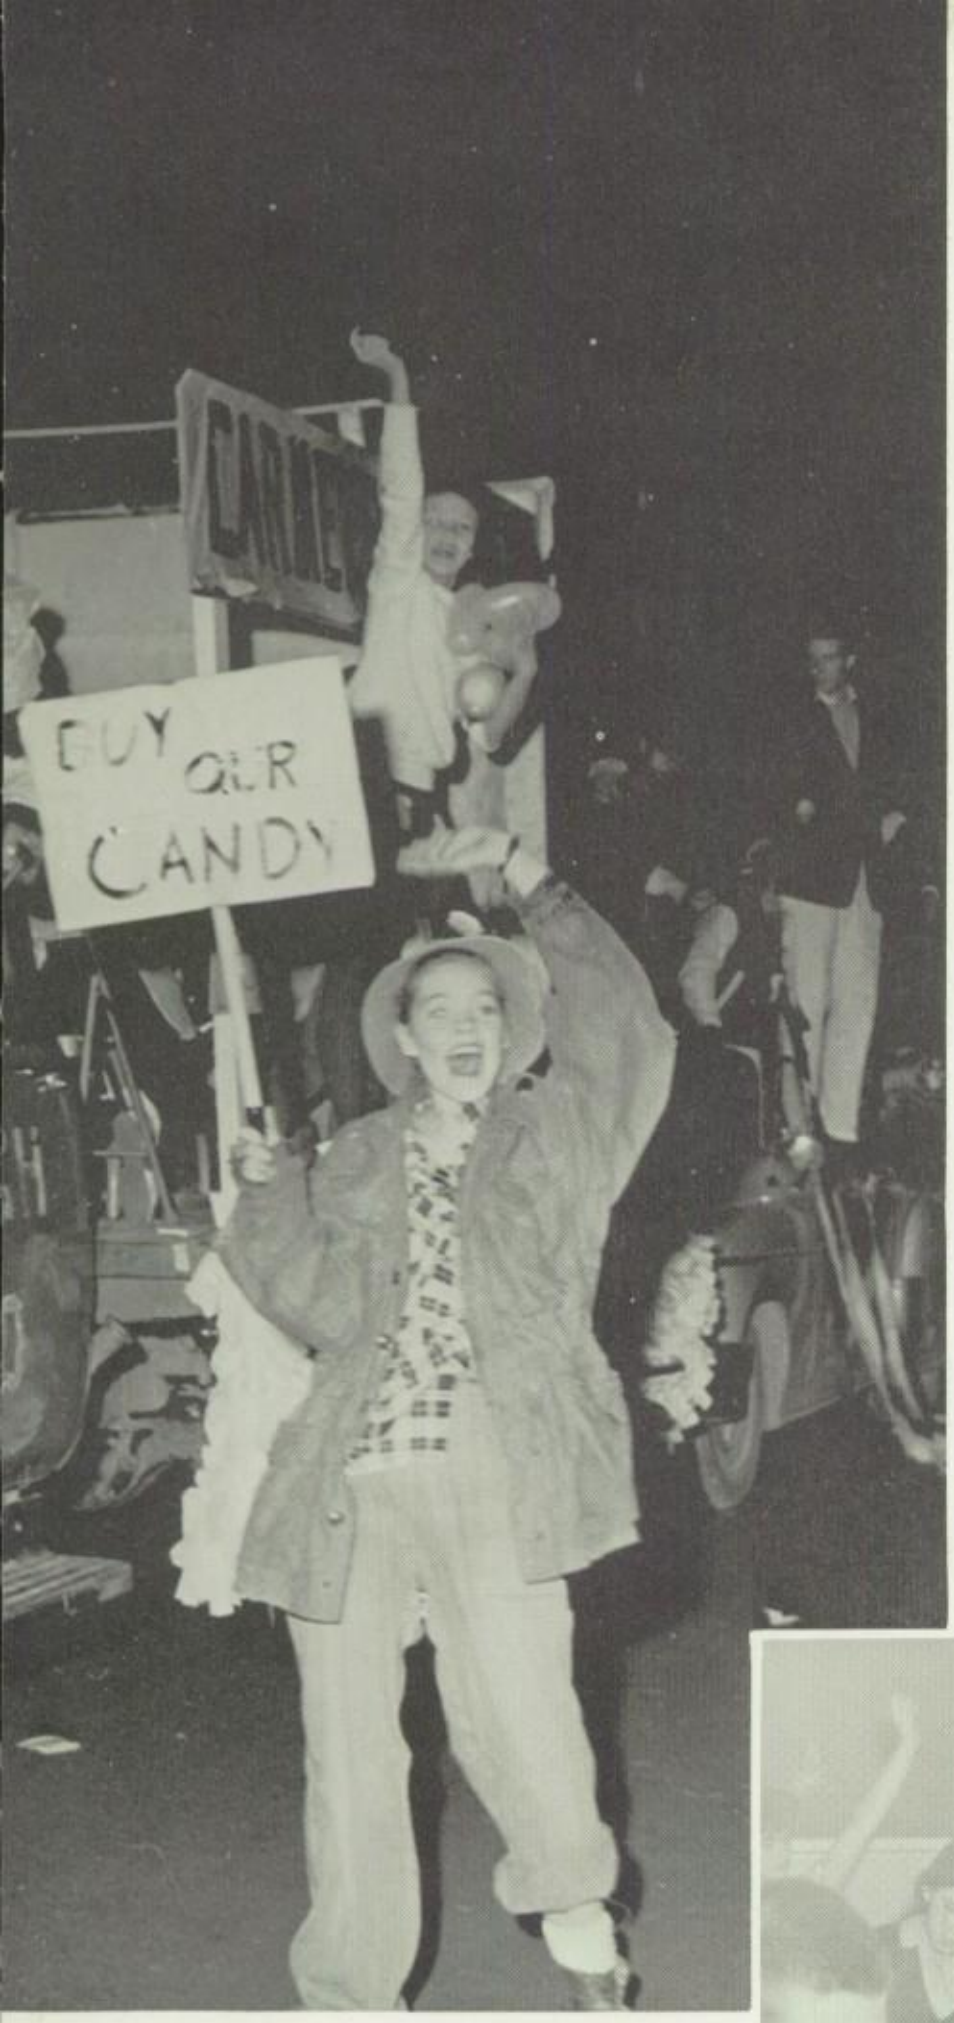
How the Pep Band raised the temperature in the gym before the basketball games?

The Chess Club that never did get a sponsor?

Frantically searching in the library for a book just the right thickness for a book report?

One hundred yards of mass confusion after the band contest?

JUNIOR HI



"The youth gets together his material to build a bridge to the moon, or, perchance, a palace, or temple on the earth, and, at length, the middle-aged man concludes to build a woodshed with them." Thoreau

Often by-passed or overlooked is the junior high building wherein 500 7th and 8th graders toil daily. Although the younger members of LCHS receive little credit for their efforts, they, too, spent a busy and fruitful year.

The junior high band entered a float in the homecoming festivities (at Left) for the first time, and was busy selling candy during the year to help buy new uniforms for its members.

Seventh and eighth grade boys were offered sports to use up both excess time and energy, and junior high cheerleaders were kept busy leading yells for their teams.

During '59-'60, there was an increase in the amount of 7th and 8th grade names on the honor roll with each new grading period, a fact that attributes their earnest study. And, several LC Jr. Highers also served their classes as homeroom representatives.

Students from these grades were entered in the vaudeville show, and were members of the pep club. They expressed themselves in both music and art. Eight grade pupils had the opportunity of singing in the mixed 8th grade glee club; and students from both classes were given a chance to let their creative powers take hold in the art room.

In fact, these young people took an active interest in all the opportunities offered to them and proved to be valuable to the school in the years, 1959-60.

CLASSES

"Knowledge is proud that he has learned so much; Wisdom is humble that he knows no more."

-Cowper

Of course, the main purpose of LCHS is to educate the students enrolled as thoroughly as possible and to prepare them for the world awaiting.

The school's curriculum includes a variety of subjects. Through these many phases of school sources, LC attempts to develop the many individual aptitudes of the pupils; and to seek out and nourish hidden talents in science, math, foreign language, cooking, shop, or agriculture.

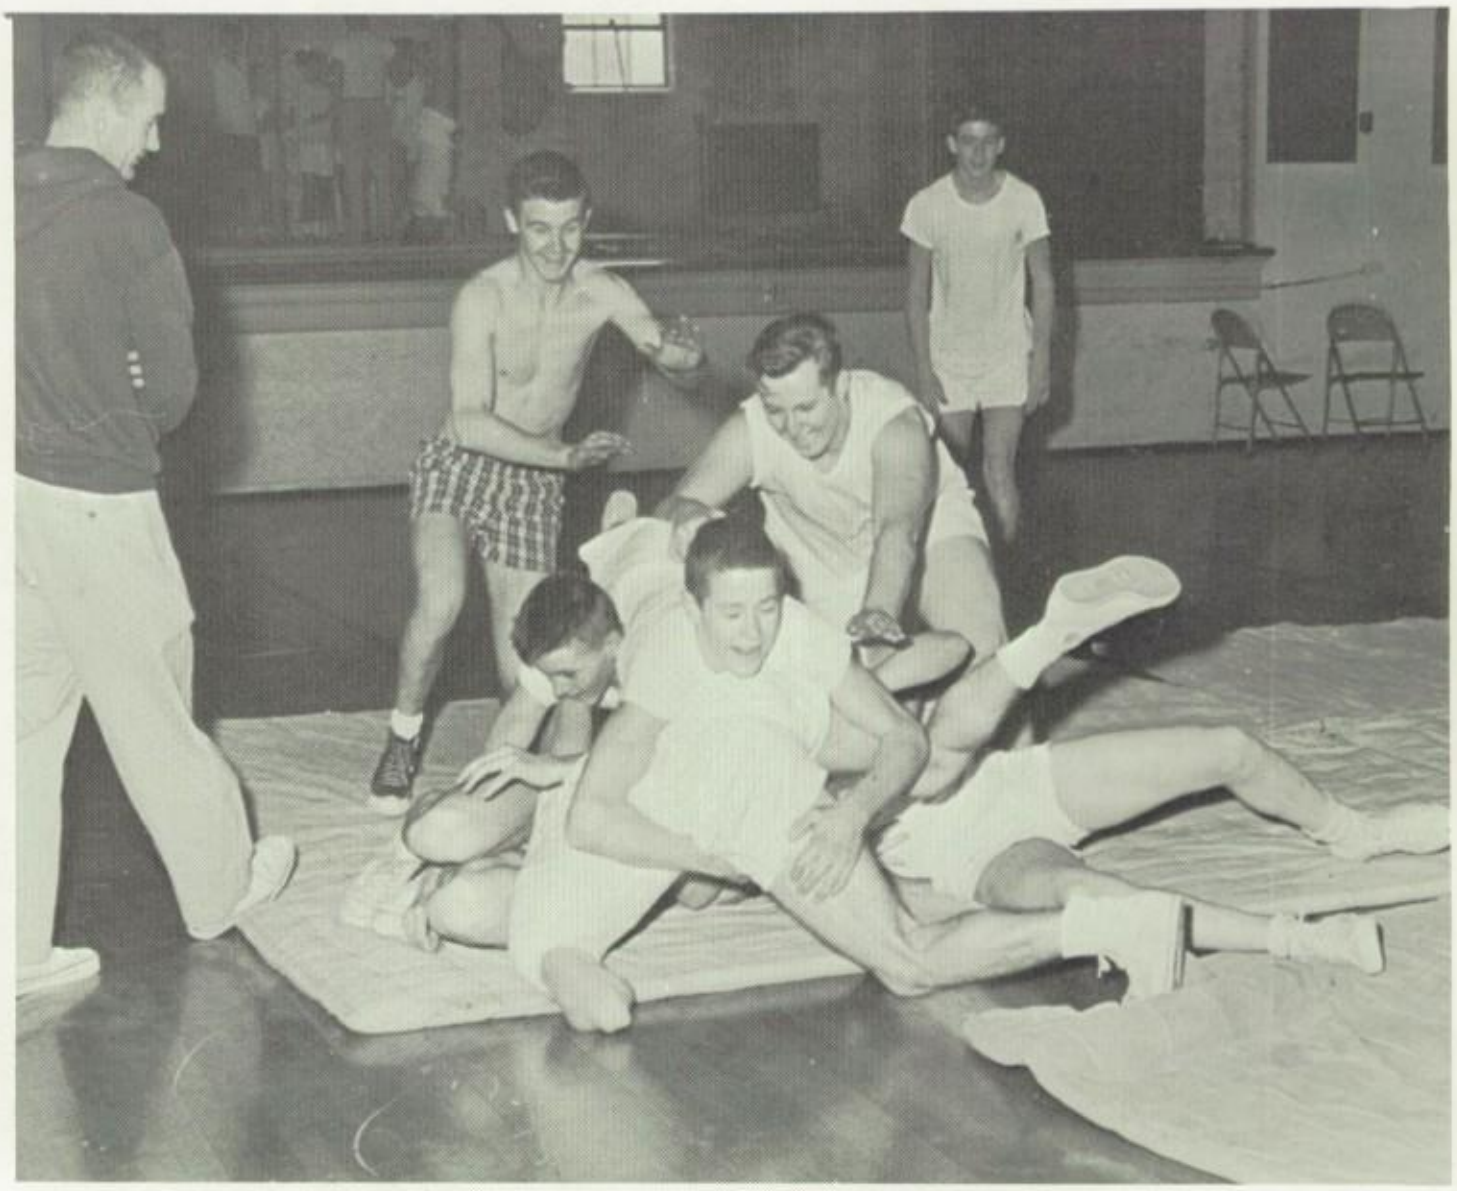
Basic artistic and personality traits are all considered at Lawrence in order to properly prepare Centralites for the world.

Girls' Gym

These LCHS girls seem to be "learning the ropes" as they participate in one of the schools numerous physical education classes. Girls' phys. ed. classes were all held in the spacious new girls' gymnasium for the first time this year. A required course for both boys and girls before graduation, this class helps to build healthy bodies while the rest of the school builds healthy minds.

Boys' Gym

The boys seem to have let things "pile up" in this physical education class. Not to be outdone by the girls' new gym, the boys took over the original one in 1959-60, even though some sports teams still held practice sessions there.



Journalism

During the Indiana High School Press Association Convention held at Franklin College, journalism students and teachers Lester Craig and William Keutzer pause for a moment before they continue with a busy schedule.

Some of LC's journalists take advantage of class time to discuss news articles and proofread copy while trying to meet a "Cub Reporter" deadline.

The purpose of the journalism class is to give its students experience in writing news stories and in publishing.

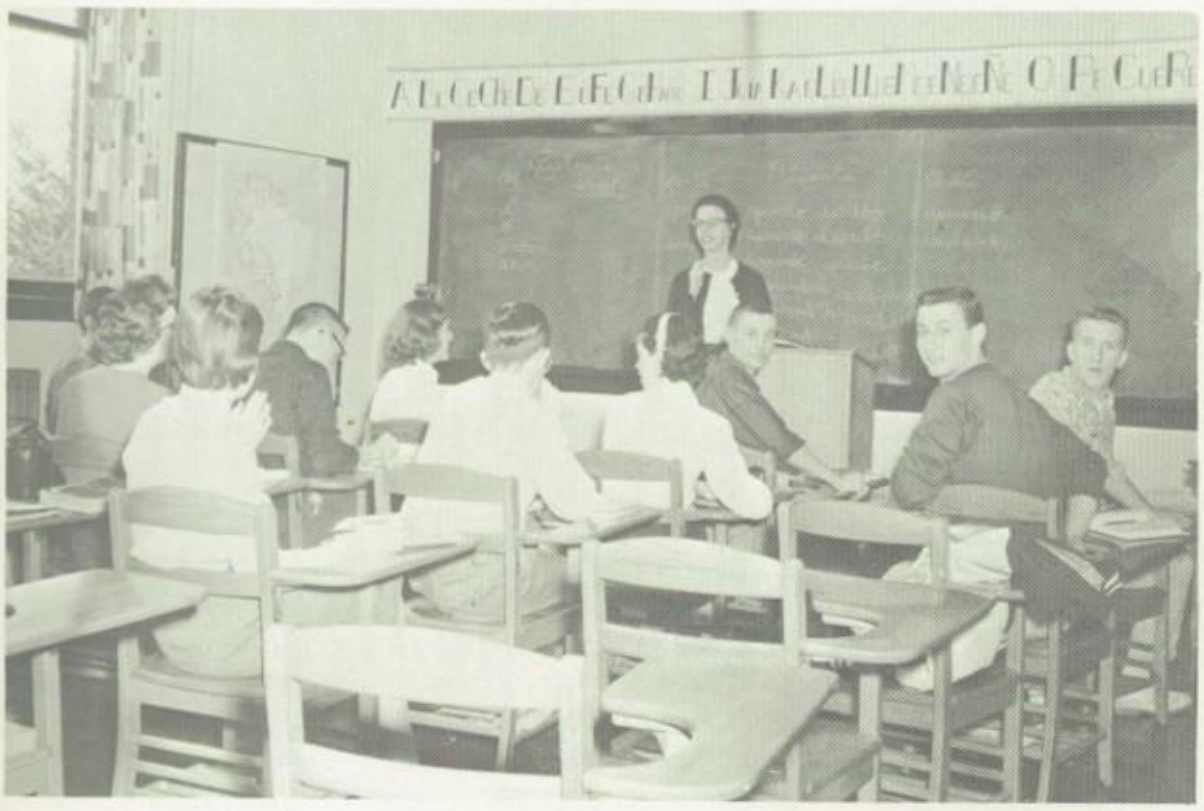
Sue Schuster, editor of the BEARS' DEN, identifies pictures for said publication during a temporary lull in class procedure.

Mr. Keutzer seems worried as he frowns at his watch. Perhaps he is wondering if the school paper will arrive from the printer on time.

"Cub Reporter" and BEAR'S DEN advisor for 1959-60 was Mr. William D. Keutzer.

FRENCH

Miss Lois Guertin seems to be pleased with the pupils of her French class. Students in first year French concentrate on the pronunciation, the practical use of, and the language itself.



SPANISH

Members of Mrs. Marjorie Eberts Spanish class turn to smile as the teacher illustrates a point. In Spanish, students not only learn the pronunciation, grammar, and syntax of the language, but are also introduced to the cultural, social, and historical aspects of Spain and its influence on America.

LATIN

Who said Latin is a dead language? Mrs. Hurt and her Latin pupils certainly do not seem to think so. Starting out in Latin, pupils are naturally taught the basis of the language vocabulary and grammar. They also study phases of the Roman way of life and its influence on modern culture and civilization.

Dramatics

Members of the drama class are busily engaged in applying make-up on fellow classmates. The purpose of dramatics is to give training in poise, platform and stage techniques, and voice to students who enjoy acting and dramatic reading.

World History

Visible in the background of this world history class is a map of the world, the history of which is taught to LC students by Mr. Russell Gladden. Through Mr. Gladden, Centralites taking this elective course are given a view of the ancient peoples and the contributions they made to modern civilizations.

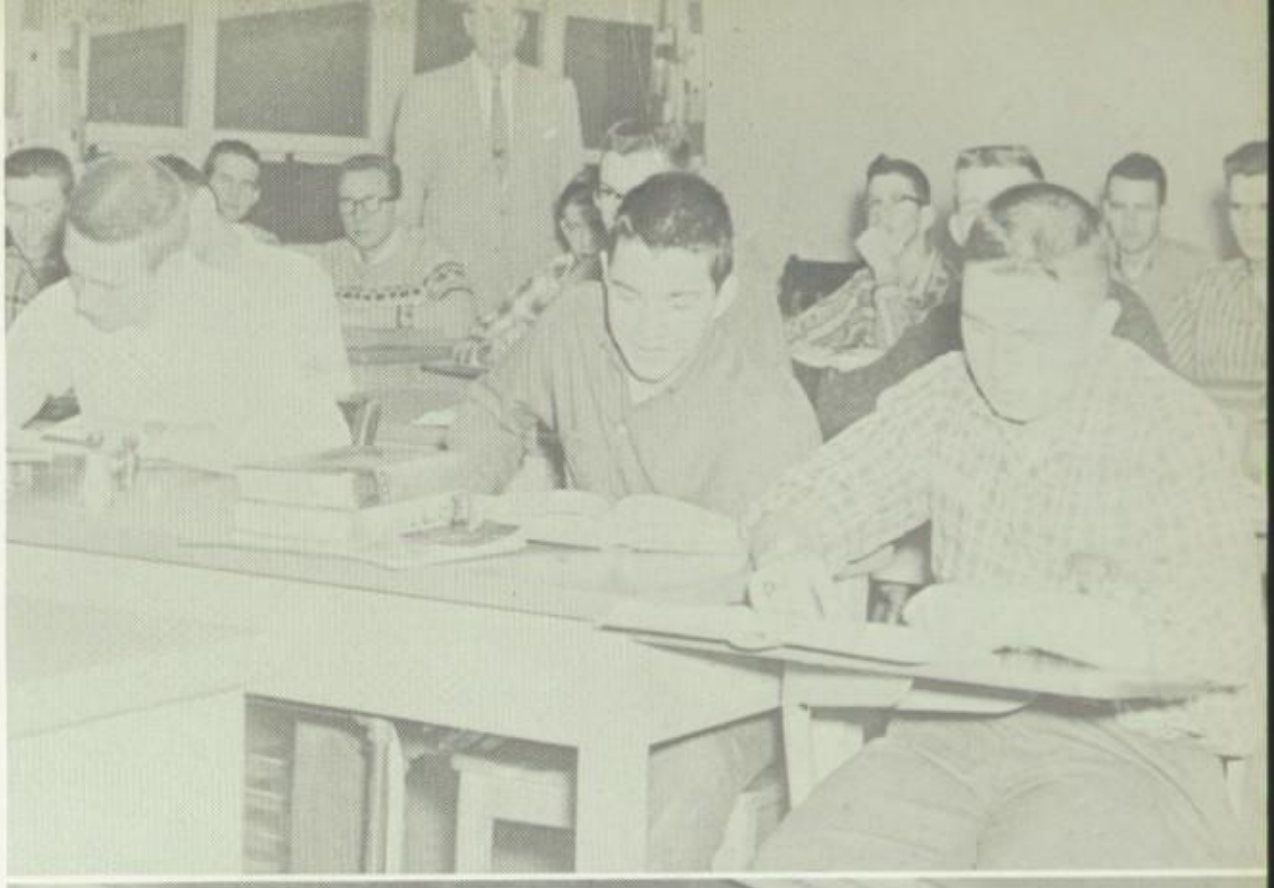
Social Problems

LC seniors learn to analyze the problems of society, under the guidance of Mr. Ben Sprinkle, social problems teacher.

This class is required before graduation.

Physics

Such subjects as math and mechanics, force and motion power, energy, and work are all involved in the science of physics. Mr. Ernest Harris, instructor of the industrious class shown here has taught them a great deal about work.



Chemistry

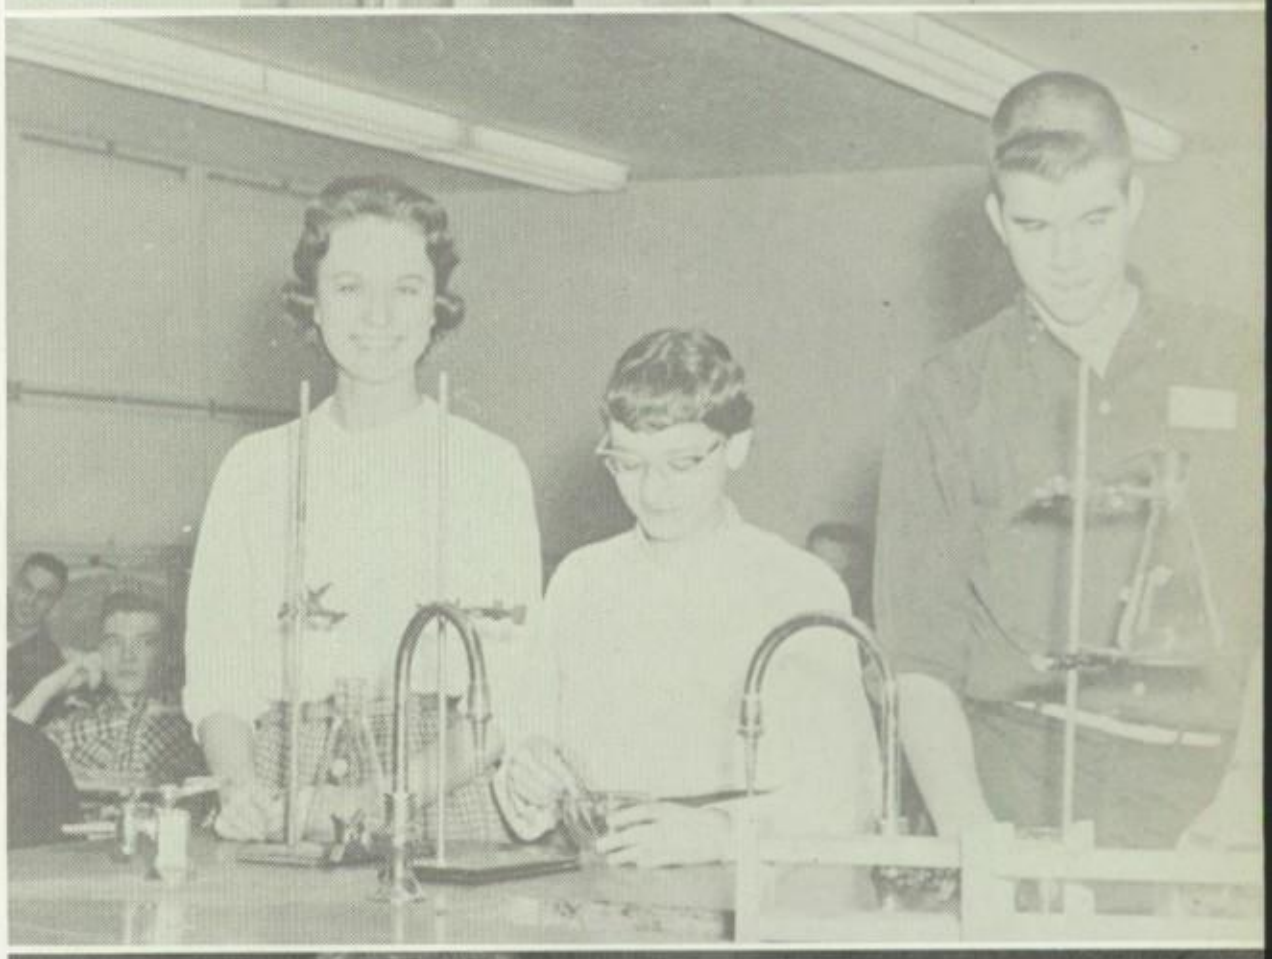
Understanding the environment, the method of science, and the application of chemistry to the life activities of the average citizen are important aims of this course.



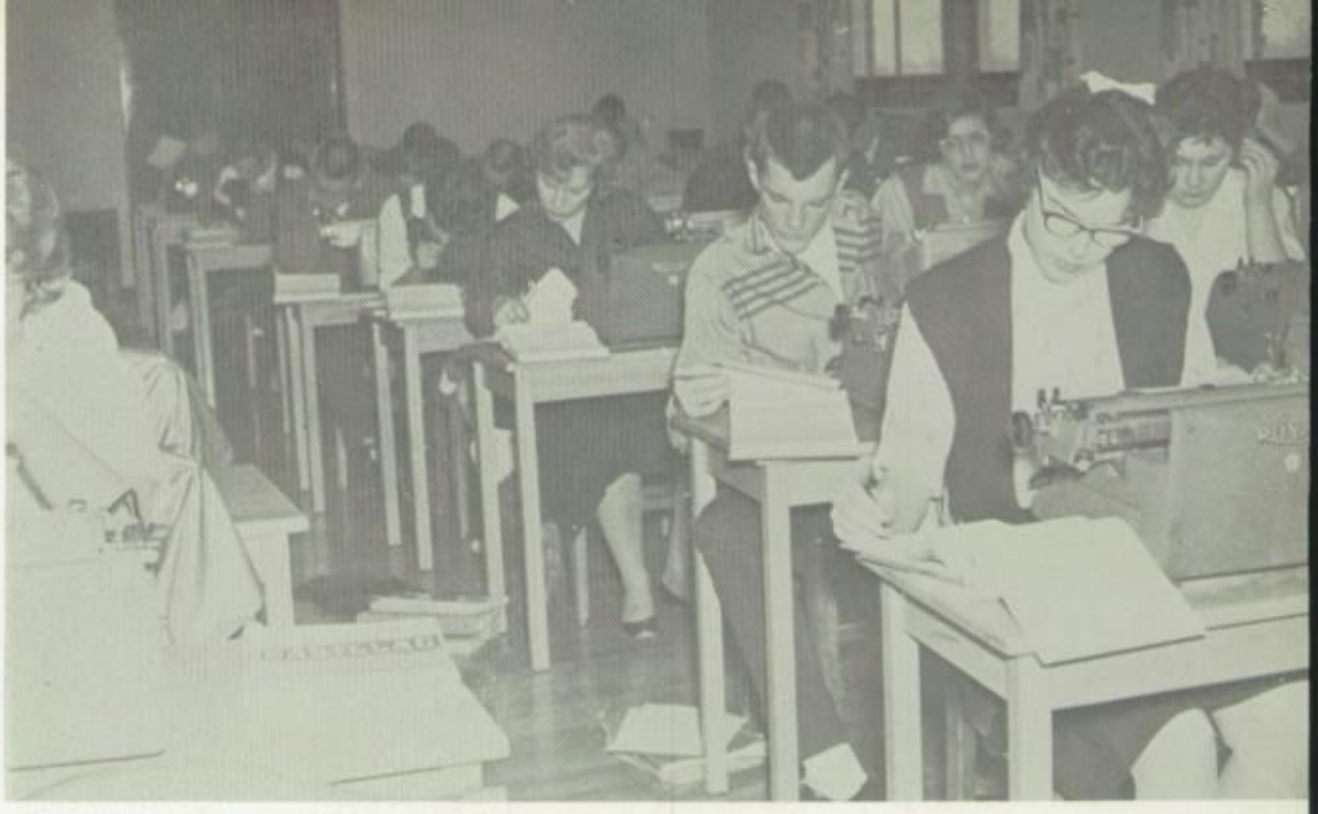
Zoology

Mr. Aubrey Hinds, zoology teacher, explains the different parts of a crayfish to two of his interested "zoo" students.

In this class attention is directed to classification, disease, and to experimental work in general biological fields such as behavior, nutrition, and evolution.

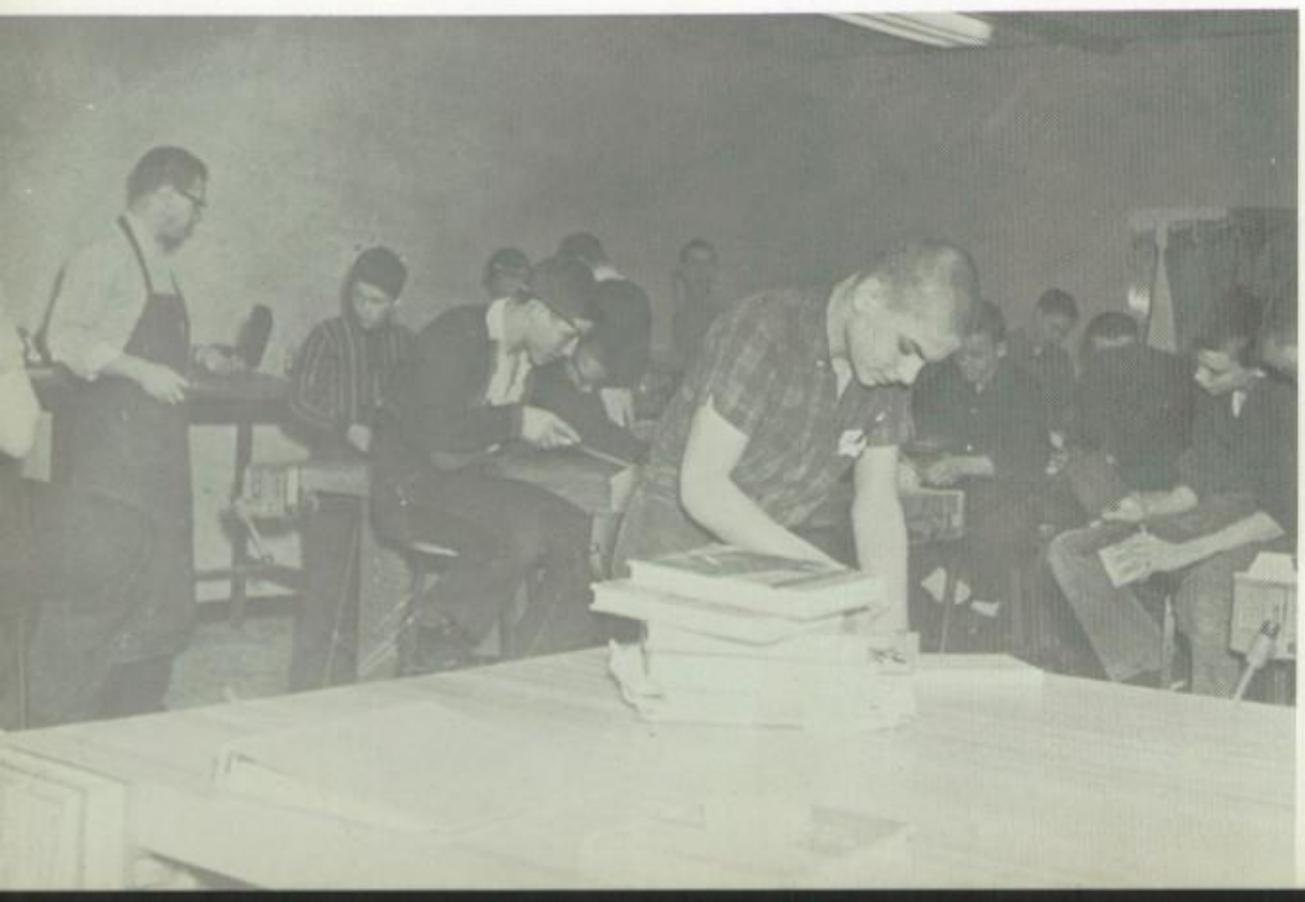
Typing

Shown here are industrious beginning typing students. In first year typing, skill building is stressed along with some application of personal use and an introduction to business.



Home Economics

Home Economics students receive some extra instruction from their teacher, Miss Schuhmacher. In this class girls learn good grooming, how to distinquish quality fabrics and weaves, how to select clothes, and of course, how to make their own clothes.



Shop

This student in general shop is busily planing a piece of wood before he continues with his project. Boys are taught the proper use of tools, methods of assembly and information concerning thier materials. Projects are also required involving the fundamental processes of each division.

College Math

Mrs. Margaret Rush, LC math teacher, holds the college math class' attention as she explains a difficult problem to them. This course, designed for prospective college students, must be preceeded by algebra (regular and advanced) and geometry, and includes an introduction to higher mathematics such as analytics and calculus.

Geometry

General Math

Open books seem to indicate that these general math students are busily applying themselves to their work. Taught by Mr. Oran Weaver, this subject's aims are to see that the student understands and is interested by math. It also sees that the material studied is socially useful.

Class "B" trophy

LC gridmen, Bill Poteat and Doug Webb, prepare to halt a charging Speedway Sparkplug during a typically exciting Lawrence game.

BALL

For the second consecutive year, the mighty Bears won the Capital District Conference and reigned as Class "B" County champs.

There were several outstanding players on the team this year, four of which were chosen for CDCT, but LC played as a unit rather than as individuals, romping easily over opposing foes. This effort for the team and the school above individual glory was the main reason for the many wins.

TRACK

Each spring boys all over Indiana begin working out in their respective track events.

The '59 LCHS track team added new honors to the Lawrence Central sports record.

Track is one sport that uniquely combines individual accomplishments with team work. Each student on the track team has one or two specialities in which he excells. Every event requires training, physical development, and mental concentration. The members of the '59 LCHS track team were outstanding in their fulfillments of all the requirements for good athletes and fine teammates.

Marion County

BASKET

Senior Doug Webb seems to be waving good-by to the basketball as it heads towards the LC net. Webb, forward on the Bears' basketball team, received a great honor this year when he was awarded a position on the All-Tourney BB team. This is really quite an achievement, for ten boys throughout the entire county received this honor.

As a result of his fine record for sportsmanship and his ability, Doug was named to the All-Stars. He has been named scorer for the Bears all season. He has been a member of the varsity basketball team for four seasons, ever since he was a freshman.

Coach Earl Steckel

BALL

Doug Webb, Lawrence's high point man, leaps up with the ball to attempt another two points for the Bears.

Even though the score of the score-board was not the winning one in most of the games, the Lawrence Bears certainly would have won all of their games if good sportsmanship, team play, and hard work counted in the final decision.

Lawrence was proud of all the team members, but it was especially proud of Doug Webb who was chosen to the All County Tourney team.

A Reserve basketball team record of eleven wins with only ten losses gave the LC student body great hopes for next year's varsity team. Many members of the reserves will advance to the varsity squad next season to replace graduating seniors. THEY ARE, FIRST ROW: R. Turner, P. Teal, B. Lorch, J. Wade, R. Bland, M. Stewart. ROW TWO: J. Eusey, B. Powell, J. Swedlon, G. Cole, P. Nickel. ROW THREE: Coach Dwaine Bell, G. Teter, M. Newkirk, and M. Brown.

Baseball, the national pastime, was not overlooked at Lawrence Central during the rush of spring sports. The Bears had some trouble coming out of Hibernation during the first few games of the 1959 season, but shortly the team began "bearing" down on the opposing forces.

The Bears' team had eight returning lettermen to aid Coach John Manka in rebuilding it. Shown below is the record chalked up by these Bears.

"Fore" became a familiar and important word around LC during the 1959 golf season. Mr. Reno Newburg took on the job of coaching the LC golf team and led it to many victories in this sport which is growing both in size and popularity in Maron County.

COACH: Mr. Joe Parker

CROSS COUNTRY

A fast growing and fast moving sport at LCHS this year was cross country.

This fine sports team added several trophies and ribbons to the already growing collection in the trophy room. Besides showing a score any team could be proud of in the many meets in which they participated, these mighty Bears also made quite a name for themselves as they swept four of the first five places to win this year's Capital District Cross Country Meet.

Under the able direction of Coach Joe Parker, the Lawrence Central cross country team proved one thing --- they can run faster than any other team in the county.

Don Mitchell

Don Mitchell, captain of the C. C. team, "ran away" with first place in the Indianapolis Sectional Cross Country Meet and brought more honors to LCHS by placing 20th in the State Meet.

WRESTLING

Of the many sports offered at Lawrence Central, wrestling is one of the most individual. This sport not only offers team competition, but also give its members a chance to pit their strength against others of their age and weight.

This year the LC grapplers suffered a slight weight handicap, but this didn't hinder them as they walked away with the Capital District Conference Title.

The Lawrence wrestlers did a splendid job, winning a large percentage of all their meets. Three members of the team also worked their way to the regionals, with Don Ellis placing third in the state finals.

Smith, and Coach Hayes.

Intramurals

Basketball

In addition to the many athletic teams at Lawrence Central, intramural basketball also offered an outlet of energy for many active senior high boys. Eight teams played in intramural "roundball" this year, with "Jones' Boys" coming out on top. ROW ONE: B. Allan, captain, A. Jones, S. Shaw, T. Ramon. ROW TWO: D. Prichard, S. Brewer, and M. Moore were the members of this winning team.

Bowling

Bowling too, was available for boy's of grades 9, 10, 11, and 12. Members of the winning bowling team were, ROW ONE: W. Bondi, B. Cooper, S. Brewer. ROW TWO: J. Callicotte, and M. Brown.

G.A.A.

Representing both Lawrence Central and its Girls Athletic Association this year in girls sports were these two teams. Both the basketball and volleyball teams had extremely good seasons, and their good sportsmanship and ability typified that of other members of the GAA organization.

TRI-HI-Y

Certainly one of the fine clubs for girls at LCHS is the Tri-Hi-Y Club. Chosen to represent this club as its officers are: Gloria Randall, Sergeant-At-Arms; Pam Jones, Secretary; Gail Zimmerman, Treasurer; Randy Biddix, Song Leader; Vicki Lawson, Second Historian; Sue Rossell, Vice-President; June Obringer, President; Sally Gray, First Historian; and Martha Morse, Chaplain.

HI-Y

Girls Booster Club

This year, as they have before, the girls at LC united their efforts to give the team full support in the form of the Girls Booster Club. Aiding the already boisterous voices of the girls were the deep bass tones emitting from the Boys Booster Block. This group was established so that the boys could back the sports teams in an organized group.

Both the girls and the boys cheering blocks helped to promote good team spirit at all the games.

Boys Booster Club

F.T.A.

One of the most beneficial clubs at Lawrence is the Future Teachers of America, better known as F.T.A. This organization gives practical teaching experience and also solid background regarding teaching principles and concepts. Displaying the club's charter are: Gloria Randall, Vice-President; Martha Richards, Historian; Mrs. Margaret Janert, Sponsor; Gail Zimmerman, President; Jackie Lambert, Secretary; and Sarah Glore, Treasurer.

LIBRARY CLUB

Rekamemoh

Seemingly engrossed in the study of a recipe book are these seven Lawrence High girls. They are some members of the LC Rekamemoh Club, which spelled backwards is homemaker, and are: sitting Barbara Carson, Secretary; standing Marcia Mithofer, President; Nancy Rosenbrock, Reporter, Maragaret Offenbacker, Treasurer; Kay Lindmore, and Sandy Brown.

Vice-President of this club is Norma Waddy who was away competing in a national cherry pie baking contest at the time this picture was taken.

Shown displaying a Red Cross poster is the Junior Red Cross club at Lawrence Central. This worthy organization, an association of the American Red Cross, had done many charitable things during the year and is a commendable addition to the Many clubs LC offers its student body.

Members of this club are: ROW ONE: Miss Ruth Schuhmacher, Sponsor; S. Marsh, G. Randall, C. Knannlein. ROW TWO: Pam Gamble, N. Hardenbrook, S. Nangle, and S. McCullough.

Future Nurses

This has indeed been a year of "firsts" for Lawrence Central. There were many first time clubs at LC this year, and among them was the Future Nurses Club, offered to all 9-12 girls. This club has done much this year. Besides getting together members, and the like, the club also took over the supervision of the sick room. Busily attending an LC pupil are: Bambi King, President; and Barbara Blount.

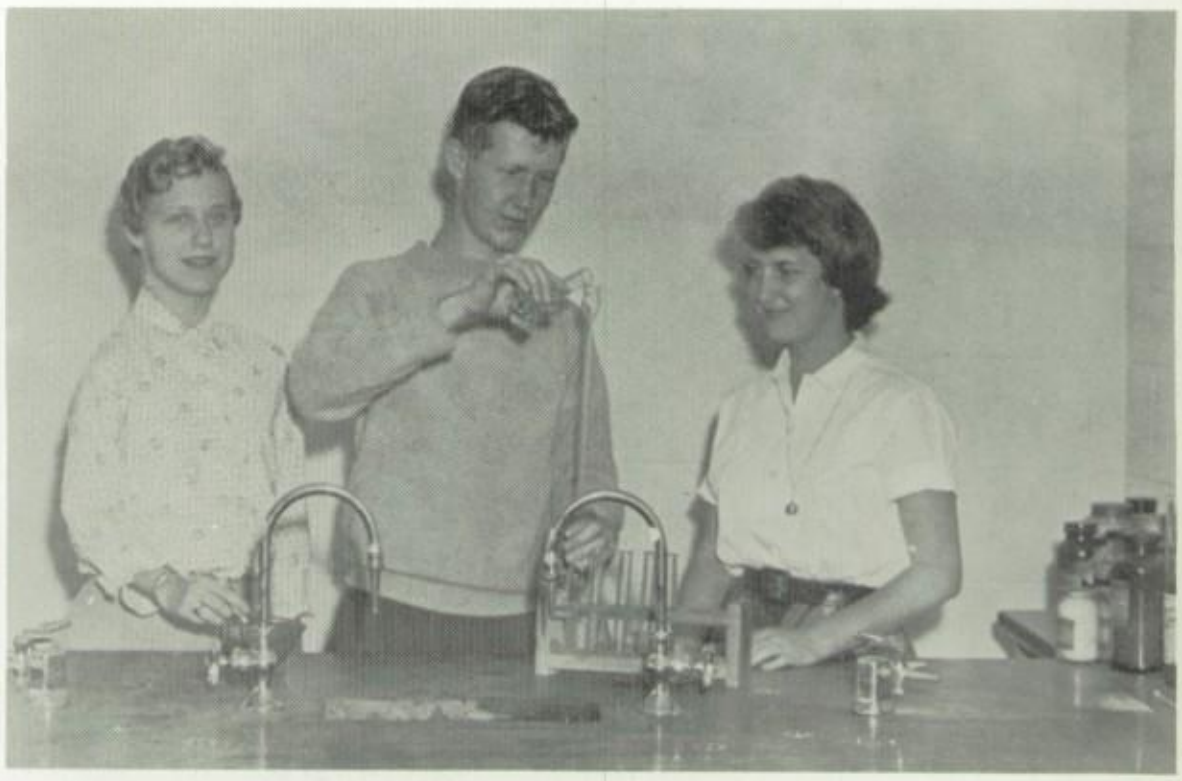
Amateur Radio

Officers of the Amateur Radio Club seem to be sending a coded message. Although this was only the first year the club has been in existance at Lawrence, it recruited new members, and created a lively spark of interest among the students.

Triad Club

Triad club members are busily performing a typical experiment at LCHS. The word Triad represents the three sciences biology, chemistry, and physics.

THESE OFFICERS ARE: Beth Henry, Treasurer; William Taylor, President; and Vicki Larson, Secretary.



French

Dave Roberts and Jerry Bean, officers of the French Club, present a puppet play for the entertainment of their classmates during a typical club meeting.

Spanish

Officers for the Spanish Club seem to be pleased about something they have read, perhaps in the Spanish newspapers. THEY ARE: Gail Jones, Secretary; Don Ellis, Advisory Counsel; Steve Huff, Advisory Counsel; Dennis Haliburton, President; Barbara Shelly, Advisory Counsel; Julie McVay, Advisory Counsel; Sandy Meeks, Historian; and Linda Hoagland, Treasurer.

Latin

Officers of Latin Club inspect a map of ancient Italy. Heading the Latin Club this year were: Bonnie Searing, Historian; Pam Gamble, Scriba; Dallas Bailey, Quaestor; Mike Newkirk, Counsul; and Gordon Teter, Vice-Counsul.

Judy Leslie

Taking first, second and third places in the annual "Voice of Democracy" contest at Lawrence for 1959 were seniors Dave Roberts and Sandy Nelson, and junior Judy Leslie, respectively. This contest, directed by Miss Paula Dee Hawkins, was open to all 10th, 11th, and 12th grade students.

Chorus Line Under the direction of Miss Paula Dee Hawkins, the girls chorus line in '59-'60 kicked up its heels and did some fine dancing. They added much to the Vaudeville Show and represented LC in many exchange programs. The members of the chorus line this year were: S. Riegel, B. Judd, C. Swan, S. Merrill, B. Hammond, C. Schmidt, C. Mauzey, and S. Murphy.

Heart Dance

Chosen by the state Heart Fund to be the Indiana Heart Fund Queen this year was an LC junior, Sharon Manwaring. Sharon was the subject for many Heart Fund publicity pictures, and assisted the fund in various other ways.

Gail Jones, also a junior at Lawrence, was the school's representative to the Heart Fund Dance, held in February at the Indianapolis Naval Armory.

Honor Society Although Lawrence Central formed a chapter of the National Honor Society only last year, it is a well established organization. Members of the club this year were: (SEATED) Beth Henry, Nancy Rosenbrock, Sandy Musgrave, Sarah Glore (STANDING) Carl Seet, Connie Russell, Barbara Carson, Graig Fulmer, Pam Jones, and Dave Roberts. This is one organization that will continually grow in number over the years.

Latin Award Shown here are the three Latin students who brought APSL trophy award to Lawrence in '59. These pupils, coached by Miss Lois Guertin, received sufficiently high scores in the contest sponsored by the Association for the Promotion of the Study of Latin for three years consecutively. They are: Nancy Hanscom, Dallas Bailie, and June Obringer.

Student Council This year the governing body of the school was composed of twelve energetic members who contributed much to LCHS by bringing many new and helpful improvements. Forming the student council for 1959-60 were: ROW ONE: P. Gamble, S. Craig, R. Arnett, M. Mithoefer, S. Manwaring. ROW TWO: M. Newkirk, R. Duch, D. Ellis, R. Youngblood, J. McConnell, D. Roberts, and J. McDaniel.

Homeroom Representatives Because this was the first year that LC had homerooms, it was also the first year for homeroom representatives. These pupils, from all four classes, represent their seperate rooms. They are: ROW ONE: T. Curry, S. Craig, J. Henshaw, V. Jessup, J. Myers, L. Pruitt, S. O'Rear, E. Perna, J. Lamson. ROW TWO: B. Zimmerman, D. Ellis, G. Jones, L. McCloud, and S. Manwaring.

Sojourners Awards

Each year, a chapter of the Sojourners Organization distinguishes a junior boy or girl with the honor of achieving the Sojourners American History Award. To promote interest and study in America, past and present, the Sojourners annually make this presentation to the U.S. History pupil of whom the social studies teachers approve. Last year, this award was won by Sandy Musgrave.

D.A.R. Award

In every school throughout America, one girl from the graduating class is honored by the presentation of the annual D.A.R. Good Citizen Award. This year The Daughters of the American Revolution presented this award to Central student Connie Russell.

Don Ellis

LC grappler Don Ellis wrestled his way into the State Wrestling Tournament this year, and made Lawrence proud when he received a third place medal. Don, a 133 pound senior, placed second in both the sectional and the regional meets.

Youth Week Awards

Taking time to be photographed with the plaques presented to them by the Lawrence Optimists Club during a luncheon held at The Heritage are: Dave Bailie, Judy Leslie, Paula Ragsdale, Optimists Club member the Reverend Floyd Biddix, and Wanda Coval.

Dave received his plaque for representing LC during Youth Emphasis Week, while the others earned theirs by taking top honors in a speech contest, the subject of which was "What Civic Clubs Can do for Their Community." Both Youth Emphasis Week and the speech contest were sponsored by the Optimists Club.

PROM

Prom Queen, Sandy Elliott, smiles happily while she presides over the 1959 Junior-Senior Prom.

Never-to-be-forgotten by all those attending was the Junior-Senior Prom held last year at the I.U. Medical Center. The theme, "Star Dust," was carried out beautifully by the ceiling decoration of painted stars and small angels of glittering blue and silver.

Prom Queen, Sandy Elliott, and her court, Sandy Musgrave, Sue Schuster, Pam Jones, and June Obringer, reigned over this event, which of all the dances held during the year is certainly the most exciting. This is probably due to the fact that it is the seniors' last school dance of the year, and it is the main reason that the Prom is always such a successful and sentimental dance.

Supporting Sandy as she ruled over this spring time dance were the members of her court, which consisted of Sandy Musgrave, Sue Schuster, Queen Sandy Elliott, June Obringer, and Pam Jones.

HOMECOMING

Sharon Hickman waves during the parade, gasps when her name is given as queen, and then smiles into the bouquet of roses presented to her by Ron Youngblood during the half time ceremonies of the Lawrence Homecoming game.

"Something old, something new----" seemed to be the theme of the 1959 Homecoming held October 19.

The old, of course, was the alumni, who were honored on this special occasion.

The new appeared in every facet of the Homecoming. Due to the enlargement in enrollment, two dance floors were necessary. LC students rocked and rolled in the boys gym, while the alumni were a bit more conservative in the girls'.

Twenty-two floats were entered in the parade, an all-time high, with the cheerleaders' float winning top honors. Sharon Hickman was announced as Homecoming Queen during the halftime festivities, having been chosen from the five lovely senior girls nominated by the football team. Sharon and her court, Sonja Eads, Becky Hammond, June Obringer, and Pam Jones, were a beautiful sight to see as they paraded onto the football field, dressed in formals and riding on tne back of open convertibles.

Sharon modestly accepts the Queen's Trophy from Mrs. W. Danneman as her court and football co-captains Hoskins and Snapp look on approvingly.

4-H'ers

Norma Waddy, Lawrence Central senior, represented Indiana in the National Cherry Pie Baking Contest held at Chicago in February. Norma had to place first in the state competition during the Indiana State Fair before she could qualify for the national contest. State winners from all over the U.S. went to Chicago to compete in the national contest.

Lawrence Central student, Larry Waddy, won the honor of attending the Junior Corn Growers Jamboree at Purdue University this year. Larry, who produced 126 bushels of corn per acre, is a sophomore at LC.

Phil Dawson and John Barbour, LC seniors, accompanied by Chuck Poore of Scecina and Mr. Virgil Shockley, Lawrence 4-H sponsor and agriculture teacher, journeyed to Washington, D.C. this year to participate in the National Vegetable Judging Contest. This team, having placed high individually in the state contest held at Purdue University, took 6th place in the national judging.

Yearbook Staff Thirteen members of the senior journalism class constituted the yearbook staff for the 1959-60 BEARS' DEN. This group, headed by Mr. William Keutzer, LCHS journalism teacher, put many hours of both work and fun into annual, the largest that Lawrence Central has ever produced. The Staff was: STANDING: Barbara Dabbs, Business Manager; Gail Zimmerman, Picture Manager; Ramona Millspaugh, Copywriter; Donna Goddard, Typist; Carolyn Vancil, Copywriter; Dee Bragdon, Sales Manager; Helen Cook, Copy Editor; Karen Knipe, Layout Assistant; Danny Hollingsworth, Photographer; Kay Yount, Copywriter; Loretta Apple, Subscription Manager. SITTING: Sue Schuster, Editor; and Barbara Shelley, Layout Editor.

Girl and Boy's State

Attending the 1959 session of Girl and Boy's State held at Indiana University last summer were these LC seniors. Sponsoring these students were the American Legion Posts at Fort Benjamin Harrison and at Oklandon.

Varsity Cheerleaders

Leading the pep block of enthusiastic Lawrence cheerers as the Bears' sport teams fought their foes this year were five energetic girls--the LC cheer-leaders. This peppy squad consisted of two veterans, senior Pam Jones and junior Sandy Riegel, and three new-comers, senior Julie Murphy, and juniors Gail Jones and Donna Wright.

Reserve Cheerleaders

Backing up the reserve basketball team of the 1959-60 season were, appropriately, the reserve cheer-leaders. This year was one of the first for reserve cheerleaders at LCHS, but nevertheless, the group did an excellent job of helping boost our boys.

Posing with their eight year old assistant, Ruth Ann Lorch, are sophomore Sharon Marsh, junior Barbara Judd, and Soph-omore Linda Mears.

Twirlers

Sharon Steckel and Sandy Elliott pose prettily as they display the form that pleased and entertained spectators between the halves at football and basketball games.

Majorettes

It's all smiles for Margie Miller, Diane Austin, and Trudy Bernitt as they recollect the many pleasant times spent displaying their talents to appreciative audiences during the year.

Drum Major

"Strutter" Jim Herriott shows the reason he gained considerable attention this year. His agility and poise won praise not only from the spectators at football games, but from Band Director Holeman as well.

Serving 1800 high school and junior high students every day is no easy task, but nevertheless, Lawrence Central's sixteen cooks did this job every day during the school term. Feeding students in two cafeterias, one of which doubled as the girls' gymnasium were: ABOVE: W. Culley, F. Robinson, N. Frost, L. Krantz, N. Williams, D. Coffman, B. White, D. Baker, R. Olvey, A. Yager. BELOW: E. Cox, V. Clark, E. Davis, R. Pring, V. Nichols, and M. Reftus.

Cooks

In charge of the cafeteria this year was Mrs. Edna Cox.

ROW ONE: R. Homsher, A. Dawyer, M. Barnes. ROW TWO: R. Clark, G. Hay, L. Kronicke, E. Groves, and G. Mehaffey.

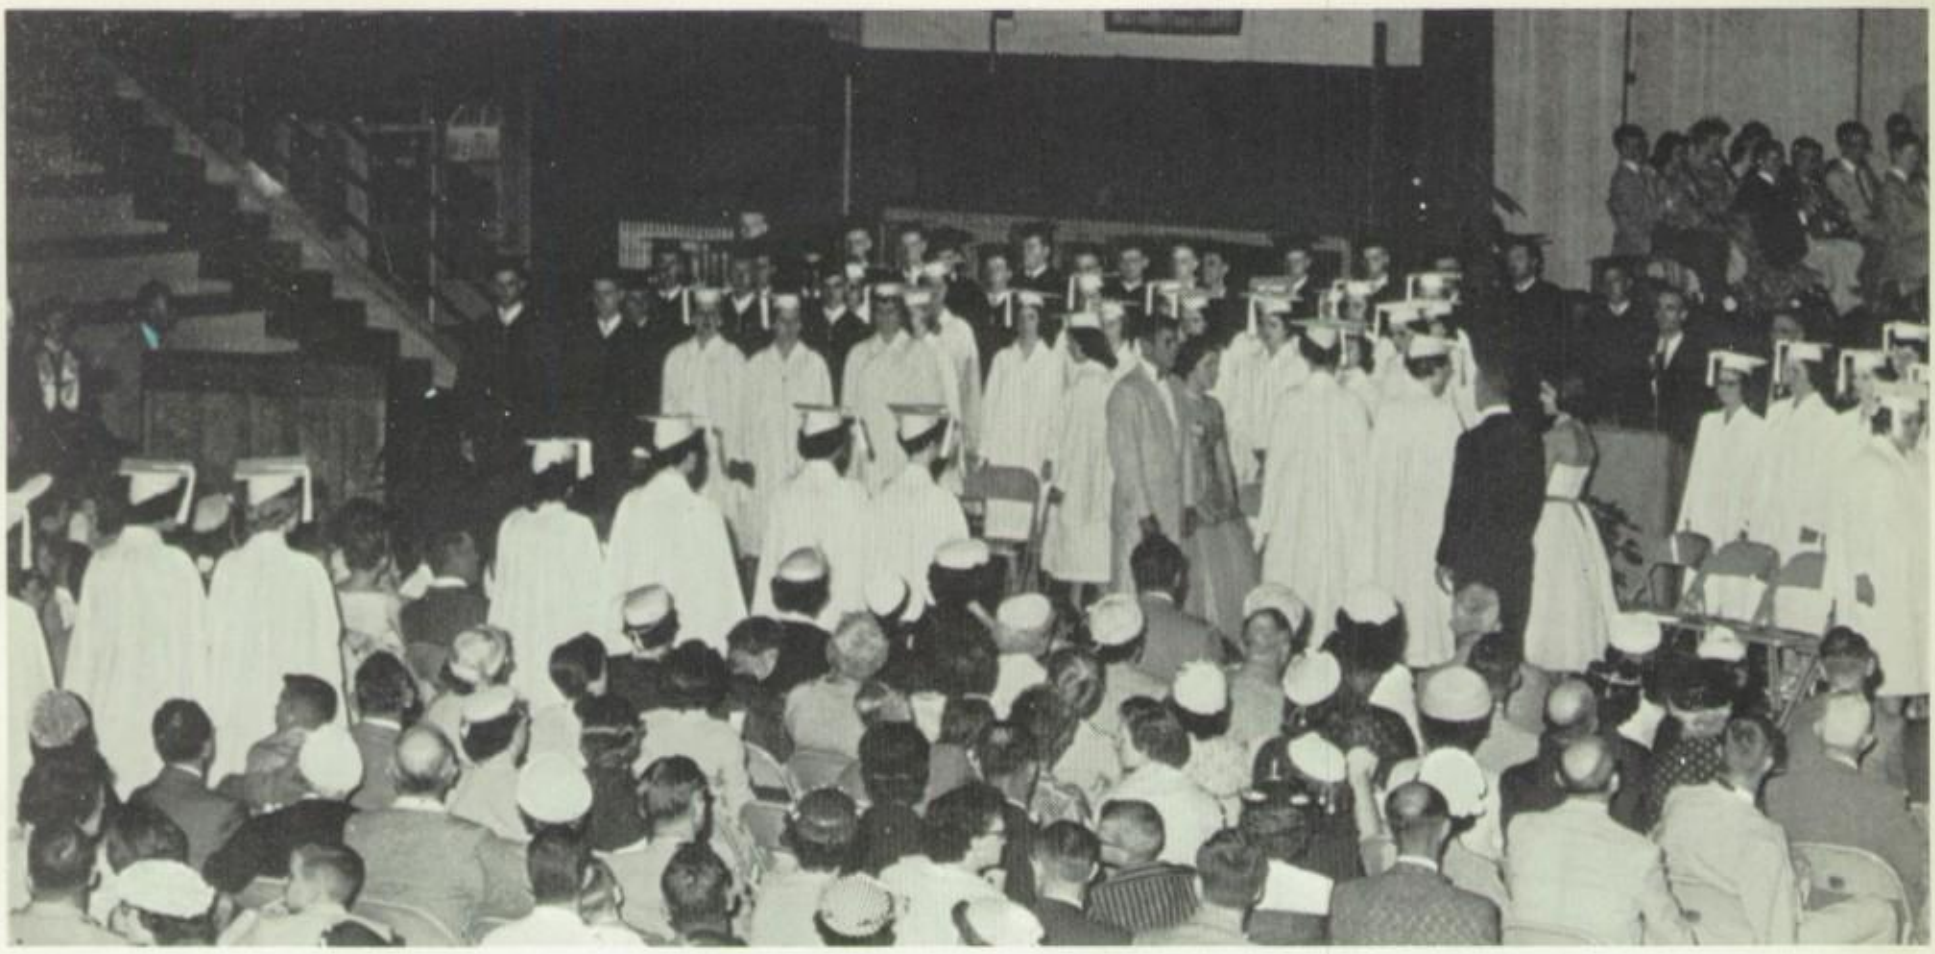
Maintenance and Custodial

Keeping the 56 rooms, 2 gymnasiums, 2 offices, library and cafeteria of LCHS clean in 1959-60 were 11 men and women. Headed by Mr. Everett Groves, these custodians spent many hours sweeping, waxing, polishing, and keeping Lawrence Central warm and in good working order.

W. Routon, W. Canter, S. Barnes, and C. Tomlin.

Bus Drivers

Safely transporting Centralites to and from school this year were: ROW ONE: C. Waddy, D. Groves, C. Rosenbrock, M. Glaub, L. M. Salsman, W. O. Puckett, R. Pressly, R. Kennington, P. Beechler, B. Raff, R. Gratter. ROW TWO: J. Eusey, W. Furgason, R. Nahre, L. Robertson, J. Gray, O. Vandergriff, J. Hendrick, O. Hinshaw, H. List, V. Lyle. ROW THREE: H. Messersmith, C. Collier, I. Scott, W. Griewahn, R. Witte, M. Messersmith, G. Apple, E. Trittipo, T. Watson, and W. Thomas.



It is an impossibility to fully record all the events and emotions that helped to make the year of 1959-60 at Lawrence Central such a successful one, but in this book, most of the important happenings of the year have been recorded, in order that they may never be forgotten as long as the BEARS'DEN remains as a monument, an historical record of their existence.

This book, dedicated to the past but also a preview of the future, is intended to bring back this year and its fond memories long after 1959-60 is just a school year that was long ago.
